Negotiated settlements in regulatory matters (fraud, sanctions, tax) as a form of Alternative Dispute Resolution

This session will explore how negotiations and alternative dispute resolution (ADR) principles can be applied when representing clients in foreign bribery enforcement actions, specifically in countries where it is possible to reach a settlement arrangement with the relevant law enforcement authorities (for example, Non-Prosecution Agreements, Deferred Prosecution Agreements and Plea Agreements in the United States and Deferred Prosecution Agreements in the United Kingdom). The panellists will also compare the prevailing and current systems in the UK, US and Canada with other new laws in Europe, such as in France (Loi Sapin II) to introduce such possibilities for negotiated sanctions in other countries.

Comparative approaches to ethics, transparency, third party funding and financial interests in arbitration and mediation proceedings

The concluding session will examine the various scenarios in which corruption can arise in the context of international arbitrations and mediations. It will analyse the roles of parties, counsel, tribunals and mediators in effectively preventing and combatting corruption in such proceedings and discuss the dichotomy between confidentiality and transparency. In doing so, it will discuss the 2014 UNCITRAL Rules on Transparency in Treaty-based Investor-State Arbitration as a model for mediation. The options for sanctioning corruption in arbitration and mediation proceedings will also be discussed, including the remedies available to arbitrators and mediators, such as referring suspicions of corruption to competent national law enforcement authorities or international bodies or issues of fraudulent consent awards.

No deductions or withholdings

All fees payable to us by you in accordance with the terms contained in this 'Information' section shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings whatsoever.

If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to be made from any fees payable to us by you under the terms contained in this 'Information' section you shall pay such sum as will, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave us with the same amount as we would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding.

If we obtain the benefit of any tax credit or other relief by reference to any such deductions or withholdings, then we shall repay to you such amount as, after such repayment has been made, will leave us in no worse position than we would have been had no such deductions or withholdings been required.

Conference sell-outs

The IBA places its conferences in venues of a suitable size for each event; however, there are times when our conferences may sell out. Should this happen, prospective delegates will be informed and a waiting list will operate. The waiting list will function on a 'first come, first served' basis, subject to receiving registered delegate cancellations. The IBA will not be liable for any travel or accommodation expenses incurred by an individual who travels to a conference without a confirmed place at the event.

Cancellation of registration or social functions

If cancellation is received in writing at the IBA office by 5 October 2018, fees will be refunded less a 25 per cent administration charge. Refunds will be made minus any monies owed to the IBA.

We regret that no refunds can be made after this date. Registrations or social function bookings received after 5 October 2018 will not be eligible for any refund of fees. Please note that NO exception will be made to this policy. Should you have difficulties in obtaining your visa and are not able to attend the Conference this cancellation policy will still apply.

Upon submission of your completed Conference registration form to the IBA you are considered 'registered' pending payment. Please note that the cancellation terms and conditions as indicated will apply as soon as your registration is received.

Provided you have cancelled your registration to attend an IBA conference in accordance with the terms of the 'cancellation of registration' clause included in the 'Information' section of the relevant conference programme, you must then confirm to us in writing at the IBA office as soon as possible, but in no event later than one year (12 calendar months) from the date of any such conference, all necessary details to enable any reimbursement owed to you to be paid. We regret that no refunds will be made after the date that is one year (12 calendar months) after the date of the relevant conference.

Travel arrangements and visas

Participants are responsible for making their own travel arrangements. It is recommended that you check your visa requirements with your local embassy or consulate. We are unable to dispatch visa invitation letters to support your visa application prior to receipt of your registration form and full payment of registration fees.

Please apply for your visa in good time.

The IBA cannot accept responsibility for hotel accommodation disputes between a delegate and the hotel.

Unauthorised accommodation agents

It has been brought to our attention that there are multiple companies contacting past attendees, claiming to represent the IBA, offering 'assistance' with registration and hotel bookings.

They are operating by cold-calling and spamming companies whose names have appeared on previous List of Participants, Programmes and Sponsorship recognition. The only Accommodation Agent the IBA works with is Judy Lane ICS. Judy Lane ICS do not contact delegates on behalf of the IBA without delegates making initial contact. Please ignore any communication that does not come directly from the IBA or Judy Lane ICS.

the global voice of the legal profession®

International Bar Association

the global voice of the legal profession

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world's leading organisation of international legal practitioners, bar associations, law firms and law societies. The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of more than 80,000 individual lawyers and more than 190 bar associations and law societies spanning over 170 countries.

Inspired by the vision of the United Nations, the IBA was founded in the same spirit, just before the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was proclaimed in 1948.

The IBA covers all practice areas and professional interests, providing members with access to leading experts and up-to-date information, enabling them to better represent their clients' interests.

Through its various committees, fora and task forces, the IBA facilitates the exchange of information and views among its members as to laws, practices and professional responsibilities relating to the practice of law around the globe.

IBA Mediation Committee

The IBA Mediation Committee focuses on laws, practices and procedures relating to the mediation, conciliation, and negotiation of transnational disputes, as well as other alternative dispute resolution (ADR) processes. The Committee seeks: to advance the information available to the international legal community about such processes and techniques for implementing them; to contribute to the development of improved practices and ethical standards in the field; and to draw attention to legal developments and problems relating to mediation and ADR. The Committee also has a subcommittee devoted to developments related to the UNCITRAL Model Law on Mediation. Additionally, the Mediation Committee works with the following IBA committees to form the Dispute Resolution Section:

- Arbitration
- Consumer Litigation
- Litigation
- Negligence and Damages

IBA North American Regional Forum

The IBA North American Regional Forum (NARF) aims to encourage regional gatherings of North American lawyers, both by holding its own plenary conferences and by assisting IBA committees in staging IBA specialist conferences in North America. The Forum also sponsors local IBA receptions in various North American cities.
